Confession TV – Specialty Category B service

The Commission approves an application for a broadcasting licence to operate a new specialty Category B service.

The application

1. Bell Media Inc. (Bell Media) filed an application for a broadcasting licence to operate Confession TV, a national, English-language specialty Category B service offering programming devoted to people and organizations that uphold law and order in our society. The service would also offer entertainment programming on the police, law, the courts, emergency and medical response teams, as well as disaster and relief operations. The Commission did not receive any interventions in connection with this application.
2. Bell Media is a wholly owned subsidiary of BCE Inc.
3. The applicant proposed to draw programming from the following program categories set out in item 6 of Schedule I to the Specialty Services Regulations, 1990, as amended from time to time: 1, 2(a), 2(b), 3, 5(a), 5(b), 7(a), 7(c), 7(d), 7(g), 11,¹12, 13 and 14.
4. To ensure that the proposed service would not be directly competitive with existing Category A services, the applicant indicated that it would accept the following condition of licence:

¹ In Broadcasting Regulatory Policy 2011-401, the Commission formally announced that it had amended program category 11 to add a new category 11(b) Reality television. Consistent with this change, the Commission has added an authorization to broadcast programming from both 11(a) General entertainment and human interest and the new 11(b) program category.

- No more than 15% of all programming broadcast during the broadcast week shall be drawn from program category 7.

Commission's decision

5. The Commission is satisfied that the application complies with all applicable policies, terms and conditions, including those set out in Public Notice 2000-6, Broadcasting Public Notice 2008-100, and Broadcasting Regulatory Policies 2010-786 and 2010-786-1. Accordingly, the Commission approves the application by Bell Media Inc. for a broadcasting licence to operate the national English-language specialty Category B service Confession TV. The terms and conditions of licence are set out in the appendix to this decision.

Reminder

6. The Commission reminds the applicant that distribution of this service is subject to the requirements set out in the Broadcasting Distribution Regulations.
