Route reference: 2013-322

Ottawa, 12 December 2013

Harvard Broadcasting Inc.

Various locations in Saskatchewan and Alberta

The application numbers are set out in Appendix 1 to this decision.

Various commercial radio programming undertakings – Licence renewals

1. Harvard Broadcasting Inc. (Harvard) filed applications to renew the broadcasting licences for the commercial radio stations set out in Appendix 1 to this decision, which expire 31 December 2013.¹ The Commission did not receive any interventions regarding these applications.

Previous non-compliance

2. In Broadcasting Decision 2010-438, the Commission renewed CKRM Regina's licence for a short-term period of three years, given the station's non-compliance with section 9(2) of the Radio Regulations, 1986 (the Regulations) relating to the filing of annual returns for each of the 2006-2007 and 2007-2008 broadcast years, with the Regulations as they relate to the broadcast of content category 2 (Popular Music) musical selections and with its conditions of licence relating to Canadian talent development contributions for the 2007-2008 broadcast year.
3. Moreover, in Broadcasting Decision 2010-439, the Commission renewed CHMX-FM Regina's licence for a short-term period of three years since the station was found in non-compliance with section 9(2) of the Regulations regarding the filing of annual returns for each of the 2006-2007 and 2007-2008 broadcast years.
4. The Commission notes that the non-compliance issues for each station have been resolved. In addition, the Commission notes that in the last licence term,² the licensee was in compliance with its regulatory requirements for each station. Given the circumstances surrounding Harvard's non-compliance for the above-mentioned stations, the Commission finds it appropriate to grant these stations a full-term licence renewal.

² 1 July 2010 to 31 August 2013

Conclusion

5. In light of all of the above, the Commission renews the broadcasting licences for the commercial radio programming undertakings set out in Appendix 1 to this decision from 1 January 2014 to 31 August 2020. The conditions of licence for each station are set out in the appropriate appendices.

Reminder

6. Pursuant to section 22 of the Broadcasting Act, the Commission reminds the licensee that the broadcasting licences will cease to have any force or effect if the broadcasting certificates issued by the Department of Industry lapse.

Employment equity

7. Because the licensee is subject to the Employment Equity Act and files reports concerning employment equity with the Department of Human Resources and Skills Development, its employment equity practices are not examined by the Commission.
